Re: LEARN Charter School

Dear Ms. Provillo,

I am the architect for the newly constructed LEARN Charter School at 1132 S. Homan Avenue. I was asked by Michael Solomon to write you concerning the presence of asbestos in the school. Because it was recently constructed (2004) and all the materials are new, to the best of my knowledge and believe there is no asbestos in the construction of the new building.

Sincerely,

Thomas Hickey, AIA
