Transitions, College & Career Access & Persistence:

The school creates pathways to success built on a vision in which all students leave secondary school with a clear plan for their initial postsecondary destination, whether in apprenticeship training, work, or college. All students have equal access to college preparatory curriculum to be successful. The school is characterized by structures for developing early postsecondary awareness and the knowledge and skills that lay the foundation for the academic rigor and social development necessary for college and career success. Students are equipped with the confidence in their ability to implement and adapt their plan throughout their lives as they and the world around them change. This vision sees students as the architects of their own lives. (adapted from Creating Pathways to Success, Ontario)

Multi-Tiered System of Support:

The school is characterized by full implementation a system of academic and social emotional (SEL) supports for all students. Every day, in all classrooms, all teachers provide: Universal instruction in the core curriculum - academic & SEL (Tier 1) to all students; additional targeted academic and SEL supports (Tier 2) where needed; and deep and intense supports (Tier 3) based on individual and small group needs. The school also monitors On Track data (grades/GPA and attendance (ES), and course credits (HS)) to provide interventions/supports for students at risk for failure and/or truancy.

- While the district has not yet rolled out a strategic system of MTSS for early childhood students, strategies exist within every classroom for all students.
- Student planning meetings occur monthly per classroom team to discuss concerns and brainstorm/strategize interventions to assist children within the classroom.
- Service providers deliver all therapies in the classroom and are available for consultation to classroom teams.
- Classroom teachers layer social emotional development through modeling, social stories, conflict resolution strategies, peer modeling, classroom agreements and visual aids.
- All classrooms utilize an overall visual schedule of their day as well as individualized schedules for those children who benefit from personalized supports.
- While formalized attendance data is not provided to the school through network systems for early childhood classrooms, the school monitors the attendance of each child, providing supports to families. This has been an area of growth over this past school year, and we plan to continue this practice.

Balanced Assessment & Grading:

A balanced assessment system effectively measures the depth and breadth of student learning and monitors student progress towards college and career readiness. It also produces actionable data to inform planning for instruction, academic supports, and resource allocation. To meet these goals, a balanced assessment system must include multiple measures and be responsive to the needs of all students, including diverse learners and English learners.

- TSG checkpoints are completed on each child three times throughout the year to measure student growth over time.
- TSG data is utilized for lesson planning, small group instruction, to monitor student progress and assist in IEP development.
- TSG, Esi-R and ASQ data is utilized within the referral process.
- The Pre-IPT test is utilized to identify students who require English Language support.
- TSG Family Conference forms and IEP report cards are used to communicate student growth to families.

Guide for Balanced Assessment & Grading

- Use multiple measures (i.e. a range of assessment types and at multiple points in time) to supplement district-centralized assessments with other formative assessments to provide a more comprehensive picture of student learning.
- Use screening, diagnostic, and progress monitoring assessment to correctly identify specific gaps and monitor improvement, especially for students receiving Tier 2 and 3 services, in addition to Tier 1 core instruction. (also see MTSS and Instruction)
- Make assessments accessible to students, including diverse learners and English Learners through employing features of universal design (<http://www.udlcenter.org/aboutudl/udlcurriculum>) and use of accommodations and, where needed, modifications.
 - Provide accommodations in presentation (i.e. how assessment text and tasks are presented to students), response (i.e. how students provide their answers), and/or setting/timing (i.e. scheduling/location of assessment).

- Measure, report, and document student progress and proficiency:
 - Against a set of clearly defined cross-curricular and content-area standards and learning objectives collaboratively developed with staff.
 - Separately from work habits, character traits, and behaviors, so that educators, counselors, advisors, and support specialists can accurately determine the difference between learning needs and behavioral or work-habit needs, academic mindsets and behaviors (CCSR).
- Ensure consistency and fairness in the assessment of learning, and assignment of scores and proficiency levels against the same learning standards, across students, teachers, assessments, learning experiences, content areas, and time.

Expectations for Quality & Character of School Life

Culture for Learning:

Score

1 2 3 4

A culture for learning is characterized by a school atmosphere that reflects the educational importance of the work undertaken by both students and staff. It describes the norms that govern the interactions among individuals about the mindsets (e.g. ability/confidence to grow with effort), academic behaviors (e.g. attending classes, completing assignments), the learning strategies and skills, the value of perseverance despite challenges and obstacles, and the general tone of the school. The classroom is characterized by high cognitive energy, by a sense that what is happening there is important, and that it is essential to "get it right." There are high expectations for all students. The classroom is a place where teachers and students value learning and hard work, and students take visible delight in accomplishing their work. Staff believe they can make a difference, that their hard work is the fundamental cause of student achievement, and are invested in student outcomes.

-Documentation of learning is present throughout all classrooms, hallways and common spaces.
 -Analysis of REACH observation data reveals 88% of the teachers at proficient or distinguished on the component 2B: Establishing a Culture for Learning. Administrators include in Next Steps ideas on how to improve this area of instruction.
 - Children's interests are honored and studied within the classrooms; often expanding into explorations of project-based work.
 -Attendance is monitored at a school-wide level and families receive communication regarding their child's attendance.
 -Through an analysis of the 5 Essentials Survey data, teachers reported that the school is rated Strong in Quality of Student Discourse.
 -Classroom activities and experiences and children's IEP goals are planned based on data from individualized TSG ratings.
 -Through an analysis of the 5 Essential Survey, data reveals that collaborative practices are rated Neutral, which allows for growth. Fourth Quarter of this school year we are initiating peer observations which will strengthen collaborative practices. We will continue this goal next year.

- Ensure students feel safe to share misunderstandings and struggles.
- Encourage students to take ownership and pride in their work where students assume responsibility for high-quality work by persevering, initiating improvements, addressing critiques, making revisions, adding detail and/or helping peers.
 - Students self-assess (e.g. checking own work before giving to teacher) to develop a reflective habit of mind essential for improvement. This ensures students take responsibility for their own learning, focuses attention on criteria for success, and increases effort and persistence.
- Provide students frequent, informative feedback.
 - Tell/show students what they have done well (through positive reinforcement) and what they need to do to improve, including clarifying criteria and goals.
 - Give feedback on the task, the processes used to complete the task, and on the student's ability to self-regulate their own learning.
- Develop academic mindsets and behaviors.
 - Teach a growth mindset that over time with effort and practice, students can learn and succeed.
 - Encourage students' sense of belonging to the school and classroom community (see Relational Trust).
 - Employ strategies including ongoing monitoring and support of students' academic behaviors.
 - Praise effort and process. For example, "Good job, that must have taken a lot of effort" instead of, "Good job. You must be really smart."

The school is characterized by having and implementing policies and procedures that emphasize proactive, instructive, and restorative approaches minimizing punitive consequences. Discipline practices primarily focus on shaping behavior as opposed to punishing behavior. The school only uses out-of-school suspension as a last resort and utilizes a systems-change approach to bring about a more restorative culture. The school is also characterized by strong and consistent school and classroom climates. The school reinforces positive behaviors and responds to misbehaviors in calm, respectful, and thoughtful ways, teaching students important social and emotional skills that enable them to get along with others, make responsible decisions, and focus on learning. When misbehavior occurs, the school seeks to understand the underlying reasons (root cause) in order to design a response that effectively changes student behavior using a menu of instructive, corrective and restorative responses.

Fund Compliance

Supplemental General State Aid(SGSA)

My school receives SGSA funds

By checking the above box, the school is verifying that the attendance center complies with the statement regarding the use of SGSA funds:

1. The attendance center allocation is correctly based on the number of students eligible to receive free and reduced lunch and breakfast.
2. The attendance center has an approved plan, developed in consultation with teachers, administrators, and other appropriate personnel, and parents of the students attending the attendance center.
3. The attendance center's plan is approved by the LSC and CPS.
4. SGSA funded activities fall within the allowable program categories: early childhood education, reduced class size, enrichment programs, remedial assistance, attendance improvement, and other educationally beneficial expenditures which supplement the regular programs as determined by the Illinois state board of education.
5. SGSA Funds supplement and do not supplant non-categorical and other categorical funds allocated to the attendance center.
6. SGSA funds are supporting only those activities specified in the school's approved plan/amendment.
7. SGSA funds are not used for capital expenditures. 8. SGSA funds are not used for any political or lobbying activities by the attendance center.

NCLB Program

NCLB Schoolwide Program

(Not available to schools receiving NCLB funds for the first time) [Title 1/SW].

The school annually reviews the schoolwide plan/program. The schoolwide program plan is available to CPS, parents, and the public, and the information in the plan is in an understandable and uniform format, and to the extent practicable in a language the parents can understand.

NCLB Targeted Assistance Program Title I funded staff participate in the school's general professional development and school planning activities. Title I funded staff assume limited duties that are assigned to similar personnel including duties beyond the classroom, or that do not benefit Title I students, as long as the amount of time spent on such duties is the same proportion of the total work time with respect to similar staff.

Non-title school that does not receive any Title funds

Parent Involvement in Targeted Assistance and Schoolwide Programs

I verify that the statement below is correct

No Child Left Behind (NCLB), the reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Act of 1965 continues a legislative commitment to parental involvement. Central features of prior reauthorizations, such as school-parent compacts, parent involvement policies, and the parent involvement funding formula remain unaltered. However, the NCLB reauthorization represents a notable shift in the role of parental involvement in the schools. It includes new provisions increasing parental notification requirements, parental selection of educational options, and parental involvement in governance. It envisions parents as informed and empowered decision makers in their children's education.

Parent Plan

Schools must involve parents in the joint development and periodic review and revision of the NCLB, Title I school parental involvement plan and policy, and in the process of school review and improvement. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

(Blank)

The school will hold an annual meeting at a time convenient to parents during the first month of school to inform them of the school's participation in NCLB, Title I programs and to explain the Title I requirements and their right to be involved in the Title I programs. The school will also offer a number of additional parental involvement meetings, including school PAC meetings, at different times and will invite all parents of children participating in the NCLB, Title I program to these meetings, and encourage them to attend. Please describe how this will be accomplished. Please list the projected date of your Title I Annual Meeting and your Title I PAC Organizational Meeting

(Blank)

Schools will provide parents information in a timely manner about its Title I program, including a description and explanation of the curriculum, the academic assessment tools used to measure children's progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

(Blank)

At the request of parents, schools will provide opportunities for regular meetings, including the School Parent Advisory Council meetings, for parents to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. Please describe how the school will immediately respond to any such suggestions.

(Blank)

Schools will provide parents a report of their child's performance on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

The school provides parents a report of children's progress on the Teaching Strategies Gold Assessment twice yearly in January and June.

Schools will provide parents timely notice when their child has been assigned to, or taught by, a teacher who is not "highly qualified," as defined in the Title I Final Regulations, for at least four (4) consecutive weeks. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

(Blank)

Schools will assist parents of participating NCLB Title I children in understanding: the state's academic content standards; the state's student academic achievement standards; the state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments; the requirements of Title I, Part A; how to monitor their child's progress; and how to work with educators. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

(Blank)

Schools will provide information, resources, materials and training, including literacy training and technology, as appropriate, to assist parents in working with their children to improve their academic achievement, and to encourage increased parental involvement. Parent Compact

Complete

The school will provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating student to meet the State's student academic achievement standards. Describe how the school will provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive environment. (Restate the school mission.)

The belief at the Barbara Vick Early Childhood and Family Centers is that social and emotional development serves as the foundation of all other learning. We provide a play-based, child-centered curriculum aligned with the Illinois Early Learning and Common Core Standards. Our curriculum maximizes the learning potential of all children, especially Diverse and English Language Learners. The staff creates learning environments that are intentionally designed to deepen children's thinking through the development of relationships with one another, provoking materials and the natural world outside. Documentation is critical to the learning process as it helps to make the children's learning visible. Providing access to innovative technology opens the world to children and staff alike, deepening and extending learning experiences. We offer families information, support and resources while encouraging them to be active participants in their child's education.

The school will hold parent-teacher conferences. Describe the kinds of parent-teacher conferences that will be held and the dates on which they are scheduled.

Parent conferences are held twice yearly in November and April. In addition to the twice yearly conferences, parents of diverse learners meet minimally once a school year for their annual review and development of the IEP. Parents and teachers are encouraged to schedule additional conferences when necessary.

The school will provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Describe when and how the school will provide reports to parents.

IEP progress reports will be completed and sent home quarterly. Teaching Strategies Gold Assessment parent conference forms are sent home twice a year in January and June. Monthly newsletters are sent home by classroom teams. Parents and teacher communicate through email and phone calls as needed.

The school will provide parents access to staff. Describe when, where and how staff will be available for consultations with parents.

Due to the nature of our program, parents and teachers have daily opportunities to connect in person during arrival and dismissal as well as by email and phone. Parents of students who ride the bus are able to communicate with staff through email, phone calls or home/school notebooks.

The school will provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their children's classes. Describe how and when parents may volunteer, participate, and observe classroom activities.

Classroom teams will provide opportunities for parent volunteers at least twice a month. Opportunities include, but are not limited to: reading a story, chaperoning a field trip, guest chef, assisting with daily classroom activities, preparing materials and sharing their expertise and cultural traditions. Parent-Child activities days are planned four times a year.

The parents will support their children's learning. Describe how the parents will assist learning (i.e. monitoring attendance, homework completion).

Parents are provided printed and verbal information regarding their child's attendance on an ongoing basis, daily attendance is strongly encouraged. Monthly newsletters are sent home from the classroom for families to stay informed on classroom curriculum and events. Quarterly school-wide newsletters are sent home. Parents are invited to spend time in the classroom and studio workshops are held to teach parents about the materials their children are using in school. Classrooms will develop a lending library system where children can take books out on a weekly basis.

The parents will participate in decisions relating to the education of their children. Describe when, where and how parents will consult with the school.

Parents are invited to attend parent orientation prior to the school year beginning to discuss the school philosophy, curriculum, assessment and other important information. There are four parent members of the LSC who are invited to participate in the development of the CIWP. Parents are invited to complete the IEP pre-conference questionnaire, participate in the development of the IEP and attend their child's IEP meeting. Parents will be surveyed quarterly regarding the educational program at the school. Parents are given input during parent-teacher conferences regarding the next steps in their child's development. The BAC meets quarterly to discuss the needs of bilingual students.

The students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. Describe how the students will assure academic achievement (i.e. good attendance, positive attitude, class preparation).

The students and staff work together to develop agreements that will ensure that each student feels valued and included as a part of the classroom community. The staff will support students to be responsible for themselves and take care of others and the environment.
