To invest in an Argument-Centered Literacy and an Assessment/Project-Based curriculum that are aligned to the CCSS to improve literacy growth because we have noticed a trend in our reading growth dropping the past two years. Literacy and Math Lead Teachers will assist with coaching around the instructional best practices around debate and Math Talks. All Teacher Teams and Senior Leadership Teams will create and/or review Argument-Centered Literacy Curriculum Maps and Math Coherence Maps to include an intentional focus on developing students Algebra skills and understanding. Ensure that all Teachers know that grade level classrooms are grouped by their RIT bands (3-8th) or TRC/DIBELS ability levels (primary grades K-2). Use our McDougal Study Grant to provide teachers with bi-monthly collaborative teacher planning time for Math curriculum development. This will improve collaborative teacher planning time, provides more constructive feedback to teachers, and builds teacher and principal relational trust.

Curriculum:

Score

The curriculum – what students should know and be able to do - makes standards come alive for students. All students have access to an academically rigorous curriculum that inspires students to think and contribute high quality work to authentic audiences beyond the classroom. The curriculum fully integrates academic and social emotional learning opportunities for all students, including diverse learners, English learners, and advanced learners. The school regularly examines the curriculum to check alignment to standards and opportunities for all students to meet those standards.

The reading curriculum will be based upon the CPS Literacy Planning Guides built upon the PARCC Content Framework. The teachers are required to provide a certain number of readings according to CPS Literacy Planning Guide per quarter. The Reading Specialists and Administration are to review and ensure that the implementation is staying on task at least twice per quarter, at the submission and a the assessment. Pacing schedules are needed to ensure that all curriculum is on task and that CCSS are addressed. All teachers are required to include interdisciplinary Morning Meeting social/emotional/academic activities at the initial start of the day K-5th. 6th-8th will have an Advisory Period in their 1st period homeroom and teachers are to implement their Second Step Curriculum (SEL) and other Advisory materials.

Guide for Curriculum

- Adhere to the CPS Content Frameworks (Math (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/library-science/cps-virtual-library/math-content-framework--virtual-library>), Science (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/science/cps-science-content-framework>), Social Science (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/social-science-1/social-science-content-framework-3-0>), and Literacy (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/literacy/cps-literacy-content-framework-2-0>)) to ensure alignment of scope and text and task complexity.
 - Provide a range and depth to knowledge and understanding of learning experiences that are language and content rich.
- Align units of instruction (horizontally/vertically) to scope and sequence maps and pace units and lessons appropriately.
 - Focus so units can be adequately addressed in the time available.
 - Examine formative data to determine mastery and pace. Discuss how much time it takes to adequately address the essential elements, and the viability of documents that articulate essential content and timing of delivery (e.g. pacing guides, curriculum maps).
- Utilize the 'big ideas' that should be taught to determine whether students are being taught the body of knowledge, the understandings and the skills expected.
 - Identify the essential understandings – what students should learn in greater depth. In other words, know 'covering everything but learning nothing' does not work.
- Expose and extend opportunities for all students to grade appropriate levels of text complexity in all types of texts, including informational in all content areas.
 - Articulate language goals that are separate from and support content goals. Literacy - reading, writing and speaking are essential 'learning tools' across the curriculum (disciplinary literacy).
- Engage all learners in content areas by fully integrating opportunities for all learners, including:
 - Diverse learners to demonstrate core knowledge and skills.
 - English Learners to develop academic language to demonstrate mastery.
 - Use English and native language development in addition to content standards to differentiate for English learners.
 - Understand research and implement programs to develop native language literacy for English learners.
 - Advanced learners to extend core knowledge and skills.
- Distinguish qualitatively and quantitatively between 'regular courses' and 'advanced courses' (e.g. AP (<http://apcentral.collegeboard.com/home>), gifted (<https://docs.google.com/a/cps.edu/viewer?a=v&pid=sites&srcid=Y3BzLmVkdXxrY3xneDoyYjllNGI4MmY3YTlxYTgz>), etc.)

- Integrate academic and social emotional learning.
- Reach outside of the classroom for real world (or simulated) application. For example,
 - Incorporate web capabilities for interactivity and information sharing.
 - Integrate field-based learning through partnerships with city institutions (e.g. museums (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/home/teachers/museum-resources>)), colleges, universities, and community based organizations.

Multi-Tiered System of Support:

The school is characterized by full implementation a system of academic and social emotional (SEL) supports for all students. Every day, in all classrooms, all teachers provide: Universal instruction in the core curriculum - academic & SEL (Tier 1) to all students; additional targeted academic and SEL supports (Tier 2) where needed; and deep and intense supports (Tier 3) based on individual and small group needs. The school also monitors On Track data (grades/GPA and attendance (ES), and course credits (HS)) to provide interventions/supports for students at risk for failure and/or truancy.

Balanced Assessment & Grading:

Score

A balanced assessment system effectively measures the depth and breadth of student learning and monitors student progress towards college and career readiness. It also produces actionable data to inform planning for instruction, academic supports, and resource allocation. To meet these goals, a balanced assessment system must include multiple measures and be responsive to the needs of all students, including diverse learners and English learners.

1 2 3 4

Our balanced assessment system includes: teachers providing weekly formative assessment aligned to CCSS; quarterly interim assessments based upon our ILT targeted instructional actions of argument centered literacy and error analysis in problem solving math that will be monitored by the ILT and Teacher Teams; and summative PARCC/NWEA assessments will be conducted two - three times a year. Additional online assessments are to be administered every quarter as part of our Computer Resource program. Computer assessment schedules are to be created by the two Technology Teachers and they will also analyze the data and provide reports to the ILT and Teacher Teams.

Guide for Balanced Assessment & Grading

- Use multiple measures (i.e. a range of assessment types and at multiple points in time) to supplement district-centralized assessments with other formative assessments to provide a more comprehensive picture of student learning.
- Use screening, diagnostic, and progress monitoring assessment to correctly identify specific gaps and monitor improvement, especially for students receiving Tier 2 and 3 services, in addition to Tier 1 core instruction. (also see MTSS and Instruction)
- Make assessments accessible to students, including diverse learners and English Learners through employing features of universal design (<http://www.udlcenter.org/aboutudl/udlcurriculum>) and use of accommodations and, where needed, modifications.
 - Provide accommodations in presentation (i.e. how assessment text and tasks are presented to students), response (i.e. how students provide their answers), and/or setting/timing (i.e. scheduling/location of assessment).
- Utilize assessments that reflect the key shifts in literacy and mathematics in teacher created or selected assessments. (see Rigorous Student Tasks)
- Utilize assessments that measure the development of academic language for English learners.
- Have access to and analyze school-wide, teacher team, and classroom assessment data to determine instructional effectiveness and subsequent learning needs
- Improve and promote assessment literacy.
 - Work together on building common assessments within a department, course, or grade level team.
 - Invest resources in helping teachers evaluate and improve the quality of formative assessments. For example, use the Assessment Design Toolkit (<http://www.csai-online.org/spotlight/assessment-design-toolkit>).
 - Use common protocols and calibrate on scoring and grading in teacher teams.
 - Analyze quality and alignment of assessments and tasks to ensure they meet the expectations of the standards and embed various levels of complexity.
- Have a grading system that clearly, accurately, consistently, and fairly communicates learning progress and achievement to students, families, postsecondary institutions, and prospective employers.
 - Ensure that students, families, teachers, counselors, advisors, and support specialists have the detailed information they need to make important decisions about a student's education.
 - Measure, report, and document student progress and proficiency:

- Against a set of clearly defined cross-curricular and content-area standards and learning objectives collaboratively developed with staff.
- Separately from work habits, character traits, and behaviors, so that educators, counselors, advisors, and support specialists can accurately determine the difference between learning needs and behavioral or work-habit needs. academic mindsets and behaviors (CCSR).
- Ensure consistency and fairness in the assessment of learning, and assignment of scores and proficiency levels against the same learning standards, across students, teachers, assessments, learning experiences, content areas, and time.
- Ensure grades are not used as a form of punishment, control, or compliance.

Expectations for Quality & Character of School Life

Culture for Learning:

A culture for learning is characterized by a school atmosphere that reflects the educational importance of the work undertaken by both students and staff. It describes the norms that govern the interactions among individuals about the mindsets (e.g. ability/confidence to grow with effort), academic behaviors (e.g. attending classes, completing assignments), the learning strategies and skills, the value of perseverance despite challenges and obstacles, and the general tone of the school. The classroom is characterized by high cognitive energy, by a sense that what is happening there is important, and that it is essential to "get it right." There are high expectations for all students. The classroom is a place where teachers and students value learning and hard work, and students take visible delight in accomplishing their work. Staff believe they can make a difference, that their hard work is the fundamental cause of student achievement, and are invested in student outcomes.

To develop a Culture and Climate Committee (CCC) and we will recruit carefully selected teachers, administrators, and parents to be on the committee. The CCC will decide upon, coordinate and administer surveys, collect & analyze data, report the results, and invite suggestions, set up a plan based upon the Five Essentials Survey, Implement the plan, and monitor the plan. This PLC will visit other schools and read related articles to help enhance our classrooms to "get it right" when it comes to creating classrooms that convey high expectations.

 - Use strategies to reinforce and cultivate student curiosity.
 - Make learning goals relevant to students, and inspire students to stay committed to their learning goals.
 - Consistently communicate the expectation that all students can achieve at high levels.
 - Utilize strategies to encourage daily and timely attendance.
- Convey high learning expectations for all students and develop structures that enable practice and perseverance for each individual student.
 - Clearly display school-wide expectations for academic and personal success throughout the building.
 - Set high expectations according to grade-appropriate learning objectives.
 - Differentiate expectations so all students stretch to not only meet but exceed personal learning goals.
 - Recognize high levels of student achievement. All students receive recognition.
 - Encourage student resilience and hard work.
 - Ensure students feel safe to share misunderstandings and struggles.
- Encourage students to take ownership and pride in their work where students assume responsibility for high-quality work by persevering, initiating improvements, addressing critiques, making revisions, adding detail and/or helping peers.
 - Students self-assess (e.g. checking own work before giving to teacher) to develop a reflective habit of mind essential for improvement. This ensures

- students take responsibility for their own learning, focuses attention on criteria for success, and increases effort and persistence.
- Provide students frequent, informative feedback.
 - Tell/show students what they have done well (through positive reinforcement) and what they need to do to improve, including clarifying criteria and goals.
 - Give feedback on the task, the processes used to complete the task, and on the student's ability to self-regulate their own learning.
- Develop academic mindsets and behaviors.

Relational Trust:

The school is characterized by high levels of relational trust between all school participants - the "glue" or the essential element that coordinates and supports the processes essential to effective school improvement. Interactions, both between the teacher and students and among students, are highly respectful, reflecting genuine warmth and caring. Students contribute to high levels of civility. Interactions are sensitive to students as individuals, appropriate to the ages and development of individual students, and to the context of the class. The net result of interactions is that of academic and personal connections among students and adults.

Restorative Approaches to Discipline:

Score

The school is characterized by having and implementing policies and procedures that emphasize proactive, instructive, and restorative approaches minimizing punitive consequences. Discipline practices primarily focus on shaping behavior as opposed to punishing behavior. The school only uses out-of-school suspension as a last resort and utilizes a systems-change approach to bring about a more restorative culture. The school is also characterized by strong and consistent school and classroom climates. The school reinforces positive behaviors and responds to misbehaviors in calm, respectful, and thoughtful ways, teaching students important social and emotional skills that enable them to get along with others, make responsible decisions, and focus on learning. When misbehavior occurs, the school seeks to understand the underlying reasons (root cause) in order to design a response that effectively changes student behavior using a menu of instructive, corrective and restorative responses.

The Culture and Climate Committee (CCC) and Administration will implement a List of Non-Negotiables for teacher practice for positively disciplining children. The List will also lay out: 1) a time frame for establishing appropriate systems for classrooms during the first two weeks of school, 2.) it will provide teachers with cues, prompts and actions to reinforce positive behaviors and de-escalate situations, and 3) will outline rewards/consequences. Second Step Training will be provided to teachers and we will have Second Step Schedules for instructional coherence. Second Step Assessments are to be given monthly to ensure compliance school wide. We will also have a professional development for teachers to show Trauma Lens to help build teacher empathy for students.

Guide for Restorative Approaches to Discipline

- PROACTIVE - Reinforce positive student behavior with clear expectations, routines, and procedures.
 - A team meets regularly to organize systems that support a restorative environment.
 - Post and refer to clear, positively stated expectations and model expected behaviors.
 - Create routines and procedures central to the learning environment.
 - Engage families as partners.
 - Contact families frequently to inform them of positive student behavior and progress.
 - Vary acknowledgements and provide both short and long term opportunities for reinforcement for all students.
- INSTRUCTIVE - Integrate universal SEL skills instruction and core content.
 - Intentionally teach competencies outlined in SEL Standards. Use discipline as opportunity to teach these skills.
 - Use a Multi-tiered System of Supports (MTSS) for social, emotional, and behavioral growth.
 - Use data to determine which behaviors should be retaught or more heavily reinforced.
 - Explicitly teach expected behavior and positively reinforce consistently school-wide.
 - Avoid power struggles with students by offering choices. Redirect students privately and respectfully.
- RESTORATIVE - Employ a continuum of responses to behavior to effectively change student behavior.
 - Ensure classroom instruction continues when problem behavior occurs.
 - Prefer responses that do not remove students from regular instructional setting or after school activities.
 - Respond to behavior to address the cause, reteach expectations, build social emotional skills, and repair relationships with staff or peers.
 - Designate an administrator, such as a dean or restorative practices coordinator, responsible for leading centrally-managed response to behaviors using consistent, restorative procedures.
 - Support teachers to engage in restorative conversations or respond to behavior incidents.
 - Provide opportunities for students to take responsibility for repairing harm caused by their actions.
 - Assign detention and ISS only for students who have a pattern of misbehavior and have not responded to non-exclusionary interventions, or when separation is a logical response to the behavior.
 - Include specific interventions to address social and emotional skill development, communicate with teachers to repair relationships, maintain classroom work, and connect to behavioral intervention services as necessary.
 - Establish a clear procedure for obtaining assignments from teachers to mitigate the impact of lost instruction for students assigned to ISS.
 - Designate space and consistent staff to support implementation of ISS.
 - (Optional) Develop a Behavioral Health Team to coordinate appropriate behavioral interventions.

	2014-2015 Actual	2015-2016 Actual	2016-2017 Goal	2017-2018 Goal
OSS per 100 (all students)
The number of out-of-school suspensions per 100 students shows the number of reported incidents that result in a OSS for every 100 students at the school. This helps account for schools of different sizes when considering how frequently students are suspended, and makes it possible to make school level comparisons. The rate is calculated by taking the number of incidents that result in an out-of-school suspension and dividing it by the total number of enrolled students and then multiplying that figure by 100. The goal is to reduce this metric by at least 7% annually.	3.57	5.22	4.85	4.51
OSS per 100 (Diverse Learners only)
The number of out-of-school suspensions per 100 students for diverse learners shows the number of reported incidents for diverse learners that result in a OSS for every 100 diverse learners at the school. This helps account for schools of different sizes when considering how frequently diverse learners are suspended, and makes it possible to make school level comparisons of diverse learner suspension rates. The rate is calculated by taking the number of incidents that result in an out-of-school suspension for diverse learners and dividing it by the total number of enrolled diverse learners and then multiplying that figure by 100. The goal is to reduce this metric by at least 28% annually.	19.58	16.30	11.74	8.45
Number of Group 4, 5, 6 Infractions
This metric shows the total number of times in a school year that a school reports behaviors that violate the Student Code of Conduct in Group 4, 5, and 6. This can be one indicator of how well schools are implementing social and emotional learning curriculum and integrating SEL into core academic instruction. Misconducts classified as Groups 4-6 include moderate, serious, or illegal behaviors. This metric is calculated by summing the total number of times a Group 4, 5, or 6 code is assigned to any incident reported for the given year. NOTE: This number may be higher than the actual number of incidents reports as sometimes multiple violations of the Student Code of Conduct may be indicated per misconduct report. The goal is to reduce this metric by at 5% the first year and 10% the following year.	48.00	87.00	83.00	74.00
Use of Codes 3-6 and 4-9
This metric indicates the number of times a school reports behaviors that violated codes 3-6 or 4-9 of the Student Code of Conduct. These codes are considered "catch-all" codes and should only be used when absolutely necessary an no other codes are appropriate. 3-6 is "Any behavior not otherwise listed in Groups 1 through 3 of this SCC that seriously disrupts the education process." 4-9 is "Any behavior not otherwise listed in Groups 1 through 4 of this SCC that very seriously disrupts the educational process." This metric is calculated by summing the total number of times a code 3-6 or 4-9 is assigned to any incident reported for the given year. The goal is reduce this metric by at least 60% the first year and another 40% the second year.	39.00	6.00	2.00	1.00
% of Misconducts Resulting in a Restorative, Instructive, or Corrective Response as the Highest-level of Response Taken
This metric shows the percent of incidents that result in a restorative, instructive, or corrective response and does not also result in a in-school or out-of-school suspension. This metric is calculated by taking the number of incidents reported that do not have an in-school or out-of-school suspension assigned to the incident number and dividing it by the total number of incidents for a given year. The goal is to increase this metric to at least 70% over a 3-year period.	57.00	18.60	50.00	60.00

Strategies

Strategy 1

If we do...

If we promote a customized restorative justice model program based upon our Beasley Bottom Line Framework (School core values of Culture of Achievement, Culture of Respect and Culture of Safety) as a restorative approach to discipline, behavior, and social/emotional learning; then the instructional core improves with the implementation of the following: 1) Quarterly Second Step Curriculum Training for teachers, staff, and parents (Second Step is a character education program used to promote students' self-regulation skills in order for them to be better able to participate in and benefit from classroom instruction and to prevent problem behaviors, peer rejection, anti-social behavior and low academic achievement); 2) Service Learning (volunteerism) for improved activism, values, ethics, socially conscious living, local issues and global issues, and 3) Positive Behavioral Incentive System (PBIS is a system that establishes principles for valued behaviors and the prevention approaches for behavior support) to reward students when they adhere to our framework and outlines consequences when they do not.

...then we see...

Through our CLWs (Classroom Learning Walks) we will see more student engagement to learn and less classroom disruptions that affords teachers more opportunities to be flexible to teach using collaborative group instruction and we will see more Beasley student pride.

...which leads to...

Our goal is to achieve the Strong rating in the categories of Supportive Environment, School Community, and Safety for the 2016-2018 school years on the MVMS 5 Essentials Surveys. Additionally, we expect to see yearly 5% growth in reading (78%) and math (38%-50%) to improve NWEA/PARCC performance.

Strategy 2

If we do...

If we enhance our Diverse Learner Program (Least Restrictive Environment) to include Life Skills Curriculum for K-8th Special Education students, then it will improve our instructional core with math and literacy basic skills through interactive activities to include: cooking, money management (finance), executive functioning (scheduling and pacing) skills and independent functioning skills (organizational and self-reliance), and hands-on gardening.

...then we see...

More student engagement with diverse learner students, more student self-advocacy, and improvement in their abilities to persevere to learn. In addition, transformed Life Skills classrooms will provide a more conducive hands-on learning environment.

...which leads to...

Our goal is to achieve 95% Diverse Learner student growth in reading and 50% Diverse Learner student growth in math on NWEA/PARCC assessments.

Strategy 3

If we do...

If we provide argument-centered literacy based upon the CERCA Framework (Claims, Evidence, Reasoning, Counterarguments, and Audience) in all K-8th literacy classrooms, then we will see impacts on our instructional core in the following ways: 1) Close Reading (CR is a key component for Common Core State Standards in that it is a thoughtful, critical analysis of a text that focuses on significant details or patterns in order to develop a deep, precise understanding of the text's form, craft, and purpose) as a strategy for read aloud(s) (K-1st) and with informational text (K-8th); 2) Annotation of texts that develop evidence-based argumentative ideas and reasoning; and 3) Emphasis on writing and speaking argumentative claims that are organized around a curricular UbD theme-based unit or debatable issues or problems.

...then we see...

We will see from teachers Common Core aligned UbD Curriculum Maps (Universal backwards design for curriculum in that teachers create the assessments first and then the learning activities to support the assessment) in English Language Arts (quarterly) to support this targeted instructional action. We will also see classes reading debatable informational articles, literary and poetry texts, or viewing social justice films (films that are based upon debatable issues) for students to draw contextual evidence (explicit or implied), and students conducting more research for the purposes of building cases for arguments and engaged in more debate.

...which leads to...

Our goal is to achieve 5% yearly growth in reading (78% for 2016-2017) and 60% student attainment in reading at the national average (50%) on NWEA/PARCC assessments.

Strategy 4

If we do...

If we set up K-8th grade students' minds up for abstract/logical thinking in Algebra (equations, graphs of linear relationships, and systems of linear equations); and spatial thinking in Geometry (defining geometric shapes, points, lines, and planes), then we will improve our instructional core using collaborative and meaningful math dialogue to include: Math Talks (Provides students' with opportunities to discuss their mathematical reasoning with their peers) , MARs Tasks (Mathematical Assessment Resource System that provide big ideas for math concepts in the forms of varying math tasks) and POM (Problems of the Month).

...then we see...

We will see students explaining math problems through error analysis and peer review (student-to-student analysis). These instructional strategies will help students to think deeper about math, learn from their peers about solving math problems differently, and articulate and explain their understanding through defending and/or writing.

...which leads to...

Our school offers Algebra 1 credit to 8th grade students. Our goal is to have more students qualifying for this credit and to have the opportunity to advance to geometry when they begin high school. In addition, we will see more math growth with the desired goal of 50% or more on NWEA/PARCC assessments.

Strategy 5

If we do...

If we have a Beasley Student Attendance Team this will help to improve our average student attendance rate. The plan is to delegate an on-site Student Attendance Liaison as a lead and to implement a team to monitor and track On-Track (CPS Dashboard Database that indicates student attendance, grades and misconducts) student performance data and determine actionable steps to improve student attendance.

...then we see...

We will see higher student attendance rates that convey students' commitment to learning and provides the school with opportunities to positively impact students' development, learning, and achievement.

...which leads to...

Our goal is to attain 97% or higher average student attendance rates.

Fund Compliance

Supplemental General State Aid(SGSA)

My school receives SGSA funds

By checking the above box, the school is verifying that the attendance center complies with the statement regarding the use of SGSA funds:

1. The attendance center allocation is correctly based on the number of students eligible to receive free and reduced lunch and breakfast.
2. The attendance center has an approved plan, developed in consultation with teachers, administrators, and other appropriate personnel, and parents of these students attending the attendance center.
3. The attendance center's plan is approved by the LSC and CPS.
4. SGSA funded activities fall within the allowable program categories: early childhood education, reduced class size, enrichment programs, remedial assistance, attendance improvement, and other educationally beneficial expenditures which supplement the regular programs as determined by the Illinois state board of education.
5. SGSA Funds supplement and do not supplant non-categorical and other categorical funds allocated to the attendance center.
6. SGSA funds are supporting only those activities specified in the school's approved plan/amendment.
7. SGSA funds are not used for capital expenditures. 8. SGSA funds are not used for any political or lobbying activities by the attendance center.

NCLB Program

NCLB Schoolwide Program

(Not available to schools receiving NCLB funds for the first time) [Title I/SW].

The school annually reviews the schoolwide plan/program. The schoolwide program plan is available to CPS, parents, and the public, and the information in the plan is in an understandable and uniform format, and to the extent practicable in a language the parents can understand.

NCLB Targeted Assistance Program Title I funded staff participate in the school's general professional development and school planning activities. Title I funded staff assume limited duties that are assigned to similar personnel including duties beyond the classroom, or that do not benefit Title I students, as long as the amount of time spent on such duties is the same proportion of the total work time with respect to similar staff.

Non-title school that does not receive any Title funds

Parent Involvement in Targeted Assistance and Schoolwide Programs

I verify that the statement below is correct

No Child Left Behind (NCLB), the reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Act of 1965 continues a legislative commitment to parental involvement. Central features of prior reauthorizations, such as school-parent compacts, parent involvement policies, and the parent involvement funding formula remain unaltered. However, the NCLB reauthorization represents a notable shift in the role of parental involvement in the schools. It includes new provisions increasing parental notification requirements, parental selection of educational options, and parental involvement in governance. It envisions parents as informed and empowered decision makers in their children's education.
