Curriculum:

Score

The curriculum – what students should know and be able to do - makes standards come alive for students. All students have access to an academically rigorous curriculum that inspires students to think and contribute high quality work to authentic audiences beyond the classroom. The curriculum fully integrates academic and social emotional learning opportunities for all students, including diverse learners, English learners, and advanced learners. The school regularly examines the curriculum to check alignment to standards and opportunities for all students to meet those standards.

Guide for Curriculum

- Adhere to the CPS Content Frameworks (Math (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/library-science/cps-virtual-library/math-content-framework---virtual-library>), Science (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/science/cps-science-content-framework>), Social Science (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/social-science-1/social-science-content-framework-3-0>), and Literacy (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/curriculum/content-area-subpages/literacy/cps-literacy-content-framework-2-0>)) to ensure alignment of scope and text and task complexity.
 - Provide a range and depth to knowledge and understanding of learning experiences that are language and content rich.
- Align units of instruction (horizontally/vertically) to scope and sequence maps and pace units and lessons appropriately.
 - Focus so units can be adequately addressed in the time available.
 - Examine formative data to determine mastery and pace. Discuss how much time it takes to adequately address the essential elements, and the viability of documents that articulate essential content and timing of delivery (e.g. pacing guides, curriculum maps).
- Utilize the ‘big ideas’ that should be taught to determine whether students are being taught the body of knowledge, the understandings and the skills expected.
 - Identify the essential understandings – what students should learn in greater depth. In other words, know ‘covering everything but learning nothing’ does not work.
- Expose and extend opportunities for all students to grade appropriate levels of text complexity in all types of texts, including informational in all content areas.
 - Articulate language goals that are separate from and support content goals. Literacy - reading, writing and speaking are essential ‘learning tools’ across the curriculum (disciplinary literacy).
- Engage all learners in content areas by fully integrating opportunities for all learners, including:
 - Diverse learners to demonstrate core knowledge and skills.
 - English Learners to develop academic language to demonstrate mastery.
 - Use English and native language development in addition to content standards to differentiate for English learners.
 - Understand research and implement programs to develop native language literacy for English learners.
 - Advanced learners to extend core knowledge and skills.
- Distinguish qualitatively and quantitatively between ‘regular courses’ and ‘advanced courses’ (e.g. AP (<http://apcentral.collegeboard.com/home>), gifted (<https://docs.google.com/a/cps.edu/viewer?a=v&pid=sites&srcid=Y3BzLmVkdXxrY3xneDoyYjIINGI4MmY3YTlxYTgz>), etc.)

 - Incorporate web capabilities for interactivity and information sharing.
 - Integrate field-based learning through partnerships with city institutions (e.g. museums (<https://sites.google.com/a/cps.edu/kc/home/teachers/museum-resources>)), colleges, universities, and community based organizations.

Balanced Assessment & Grading:

A balanced assessment system effectively measures the depth and breadth of student learning and monitors student progress towards college and career readiness. It also produces actionable data to inform planning for instruction, academic supports, and resource allocation. To meet these goals, a balanced assessment system must include multiple measures and be responsive to the needs of all students, including diverse learners and English learners.

Guide for Balanced Assessment & Grading

- Use multiple measures (i.e. a range of assessment types and at multiple points in time) to supplement district-centralized assessments with other formative assessments to provide a more comprehensive picture of student learning.
- Use screening, diagnostic, and progress monitoring assessment to correctly identify specific gaps and monitor improvement, especially for students receiving Tier 2 and 3 services, in addition to Tier 1 core instruction. (also see MTSS and Instruction)
- Make assessments accessible to students, including diverse learners and English Learners through employing features of universal design (<http://www.udlcenter.org/aboutudl/udlcurriculum>) and use of accommodations and, where needed, modifications.
 - Provide accommodations in presentation (i.e. how assessment text and tasks are presented to students), response (i.e. how students provide their answers), and/or setting/timing (i.e. scheduling/location of assessment).
- Utilize assessments that reflect the key shifts in literacy and mathematics in teacher created or selected assessments. (see Rigorous Student Tasks)
- Utilize assessments that measure the development of academic language for English learners.
- Have access to and analyze school-wide, teacher team, and classroom assessment data to determine instructional effectiveness and subsequent learning needs
- Improve and promote assessment literacy.
 - Work together on building common assessments within a department, course, or grade level team.
 - Invest resources in helping teachers evaluate and improve the quality of formative assessments. For example, use the Assessment Design Toolkit (<http://www.csai-online.org/spotlight/assessment-design-toolkit>).
 - Use common protocols and calibrate on scoring and grading in teacher teams.
 - Analyze quality and alignment of assessments and tasks to ensure they meet the expectations of the standards and embed various levels of complexity.
- Have a grading system that clearly, accurately, consistently, and fairly communicates learning progress and achievement to students, families, postsecondary institutions, and prospective employers.
 - Ensure that students, families, teachers, counselors, advisors, and support specialists have the detailed information they need to make important decisions about a student's education.
 - Measure, report, and document student progress and proficiency:
 - Against a set of clearly defined cross-curricular and content-area standards and learning objectives collaboratively developed with staff.
 - Separately from work habits, character traits, and behaviors, so that educators, counselors, advisors, and support specialists can accurately determine the difference between learning needs and behavioral or work-habit needs. academic mindsets and behaviors (CCSR).
 - Ensure consistency and fairness in the assessment of learning, and assignment of scores and proficiency levels against the same learning standards, across students, teachers, assessments, learning experiences, content areas, and time.
 - Ensure grades are not used as a form of punishment, control, or compliance.

Culture for Learning:

Score

A culture for learning is characterized by a school atmosphere that reflects the educational importance of the work undertaken by both students and staff. It describes the norms that govern the interactions among individuals about the mindsets (e.g. ability/confidence to grow with effort), academic behaviors (e.g. attending classes, completing assignments), the learning strategies and skills, the value of perseverance despite challenges and obstacles, and the general tone of the school. The classroom is characterized by high cognitive energy, by a sense that what is happening there is important, and that it is essential to "get it right." There are high expectations for all students. The classroom is a place where teachers and students value learning and hard work, and students take visible delight in accomplishing their work. Staff believe they can make a difference, that their hard work is the fundamental cause of student achievement, and are invested in student outcomes.

 - Students self-assess (e.g. checking own work before giving to teacher) to develop a reflective habit of mind essential for improvement. This ensures students take responsibility for their own learning, focuses attention on criteria for success, and increases effort and persistence.
- Provide students frequent, informative feedback.
 - Tell/show students what they have done well (through positive reinforcement) and what they need to do to improve, including clarifying criteria and goals.
 - Give feedback on the task, the processes used to complete the task, and on the student's ability to self-regulate their own learning.

If we do...

...which leads to...

Research suggests that classroom instruction is the most important lever to increasing student achievement. The foundation of effective instruction is having maps that are properly aligned to the rigor and content of the standards. As a result, ensuring that maps are properly aligned will increase Growth and Attainment rates. Consequently, with fidelity, teachers will implement a standards - based, benchmark assessment system that is aligned to the CCSS.

A cohesive, rigorous instructional framework that aligns what is written, what is taught, and what is assessed.

Properly aligned curriculum maps that result in at least 70% of students meeting or exceeding growth targets on the PSAT/PARCC assessments.

At least 85% of staff proficient in domain 1d of the Teaching for Learning Framework.

Strategy 2

If we do...

An initial analysis of literacy scores for incoming freshmen suggests that students' reading comprehension skills must be strengthened. Specifically, NWEA data suggests that the freshman class has a wide range of literacy skills, some extremely developed (Hi-HiAvg) and some underdeveloped, (Low -LowAvg). To address these gaps and ranges, teachers must employ targeted instructional strategies. As a result, the administrative team will develop professional development cycles to ensure that teachers implement close reading & text dependent questions.

...then we see...

A targeted, school-wide emphasis on increasing students' reading comprehension skills.

A professional development cycle that provides teachers with research, provides opportunities for safe practice and feedback, and results in improved instruction.

...which leads to...

100% of teachers implement close - reading & text - dependent questions, resulting in at least 70% of students meeting or exceeding literacy growth targets (PARCC & PSAT).

At least 85% of teachers proficient in domains 1a & 3b of the Teaching for Learning Framework.

Strategy 3

If we do...	...then we see...	...which leads to...
According to Maslow's Hierarchy of needs, safety and security are prerequisites for ensuring that one has the ability to become self-actualized or reach his/her full potential. In the same way, students ensuring that students are emotionally and physically safe is at the heart of an effective instructional program. Thus, the administrative team will develop effective school - wide systems, structures, policies, and procedures, including Sprick's "Discipline in the Secondary Classroom" and Peace Circles.	Implementing these strategies will result in the following: - A safe and orderly environment for staff and students -Clear, school - wide expectations and procedures -Common language regarding disciplinary issues and restorative practices -Cohesive system for identifying students' social-emotional needs & disciplinary issues as well clarity regarding the response systems	Attendance rate of 90% or better. 10 per 100 students misconducts or fewer. "Highly supportive" rating on "My School, My Voice" survey. 100% teachers implement STOIC, from Sprick's Discipline in the Secondary Classroom. At least 85% of teachers proficient in domain two of the Teaching for Learning Framework.

Fund Compliance

Supplemental General State Aid(SGSA)

My school receives SGSA funds

By checking the above box, the school is verifying that the attendance center complies with the statement regarding the use of SGSA funds:

1. The attendance center allocation is correctly based on the number of students eligible to receive free and reduced lunch and breakfast.
2. The attendance center has an approved plan, developed in consultation with teachers, administrators, and other appropriate personnel, and parents of the students attending the attendance center.
3. The attendance center's plan is approved by the LSC and CPS.
4. SGSA funded activities fall within the allowable program categories: early childhood education, reduced class size, enrichment programs, remedial assistance, attendance improvement, and other educationally beneficial expenditures which supplement the regular programs as determined by the Illinois state board of education.
5. SGSA Funds supplement and do not supplant non-categorical and other categorical funds allocated to the attendance center.
6. SGSA funds are supporting only those activities specified in the school's approved plan/amendment.
7. SGSA funds are not used for capital expenditures. 8. SGSA funds are not used for any political or lobbying activities by the attendance center.

NCLB Program

NCLB Schoolwide Program

(Not available to schools receiving NCLB funds for the first time) [Title 1/SW].

The school annually reviews the schoolwide plan/program. The schoolwide program plan is available to CPS, parents, and the public, and the information in the plan is in an understandable and uniform format, and to the extent practicable in a language the parents can understand.

NCLB Targeted Assistance Program Title I funded staff participate in the school's general professional development and school planning activities. Title I funded staff assume limited duties that are assigned to similar personnel including duties beyond the classroom, or that do not benefit Title I students, as long as the amount of time spent on such duties is the same proportion of the total work time with respect to similar staff.

Non-title school that does not receive any Title funds

Parent Involvement in Targeted Assistance and Schoolwide Programs

I verify that the statement below is correct

No Child Left Behind (NCLB), the reauthorization of the Elementary and Secondary Act of 1965 continues a legislative commitment to parental involvement. Central features of prior reauthorizations, such as school-parent compacts, parent involvement policies, and the parent involvement funding formula remain unaltered. However, the NCLB reauthorization represents a notable shift in the role of parental involvement in the schools. It includes new provisions increasing parental notification requirements, parental selection of educational options, and parental involvement in governance. It envisions parents as informed and empowered decision makers in their children's education.

Parent Plan

Parent Involvement Policy

Complete

Schools must involve parents in the joint development and periodic review and revision of the NCLB, Title I school parental involvement plan and policy, and in the process of school review and improvement. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Administration and the Instructional Leadership Team (ILT) have identified critical areas of need and crafted a professional development plan to address the needs, which include literacy across the content, Common Core Curricula Standards and Assessments, and Data Driven Instruction Cycle. Department chairs and team leads identify research-based, job-embedded practices and data collected during instructional rounds to all staff development day trainings. The strategic plan will be shared with all stakeholders through various events: orientation, open house, PAC meetings, external partner meetings, and CPS Network and Senior Leadership meetings.

The school will hold an annual meeting at a time convenient to parents during the first month of school to inform them of the school's participation in NCLB, Title I programs and to explain the Title I requirements and their right to be involved in the Title I programs. The school will also offer a number of additional parental involvement meetings, including school PAC meetings, at different times and will invite all parents of children participating in the NCLB, Title I program to these meetings, and encourage them to attend. Please describe how this will be accomplished. Please list the projected date of your Title I Annual Meeting and your Title I PAC Organizational Meeting

Administration will disseminate notices regarding meetings via email, phone, newsletter, and website. During the Organizational Meeting, Administration will establish a calendar of monthly meetings that is convenient for all parents. This meeting will occur no later than September 30, 2016.

Schools will provide parents information in a timely manner about its Title I program, including a description and explanation of the curriculum, the academic assessment tools used to measure children's progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Dyett High School for the Arts will use multiple modes to communicate with parent/guardian, families and the community: in-person, telephone, and electronic communication. The purpose of the communication serve to share information about the curriculum, assessments, and student progress in meeting proficiency levels. Students and parents are provided with directions on how to access the GradeBook portal to monitor student progress on formative assessments and other data. Syllabi and curricula expectations will be sent home the first week of school or upon enrollment to the school, and addendums are available each quarter given our early adoption of standards-based grading. Progress reports are issued every three-weeks, in addition to the mandatory five-week progress reports issued by CPS. Student "on-track" data is closely monitored and interventions are implemented to ensure all students are provided with adequate academic and behavioral supports. Parent/guardian have an option to engage in an academic goal setting activity for their child.

At the request of parents, schools will provide opportunities for regular meetings, including the School Parent Advisory Council meetings, for parents to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. Please describe how the school will immediately respond to any such suggestions.

The PAC schedule of meetings is established and published in October. The PAC organizational meeting will take place in September. During these meetings, members are asked to invite a guest for the next meeting to create a greater network of members. At these meetings, participants are able to elicit multiple perspectives around the school's vision and mission. It also validates the important role parent/guardian/families/community play in their children's education.

Schools will provide parents a report of their child's performance on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Student interim assessment and score reports are shared with students each quarter in English, reading, math and science. Hard copies are sent home and posted in GradeBook. Time is dedicated during team meeting, Instructional Leadership Team Meetings and LSC meetings to review cohort data. Data walls are prominently displayed around campus to display subject/grade level target goals. All academic goals and concerns, including early college planning, stem from the standardized score reports disaggregated by student, teacher, class, grade, and core content.

Schools will provide parents timely notice when their child has been assigned to, or taught by, a teacher who is not "highly qualified," as defined in the Title I Final Regulations, for at least four (4) consecutive weeks. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

The school receives electronic notification from the BOE, which generates a letter which is mailed to the parent/guardian. Additional copies are kept on hand in the Main Office for when a parent visits the school.

Schools will assist parents of participating NCLB Title I children in understanding: the state's academic content standards; the state's student academic achievement standards; the state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments; the requirements of Title I, Part A; how to monitor their child's progress; and how to work with educators. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Informational session on understanding the Common Core Standards, Standard-Based Grading and assessments are held during orientation, curricula night, report card pick up days and during individual conferences. Cohort parent meetings (seniors, junior, etc.) integrate these topics in their discussions.

Schools will provide information, resources, materials and training, including literacy training and technology, as appropriate, to assist parents in working with their children to improve their academic achievement, and to encourage increased parental involvement. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Faculty will offer parent workshops on literacy strategies, access to Parent Portal and other CPS online information. Winter recess and summer reading lists will be sent home, along with links to access free learning resources via Chicago Public Library. These training may be scheduled or offered to cohorts during report card pick up nights.

Schools will educate all staff in the value and utility of contributions by parents and in how to reach out to, communicate and work with, parents as equal partners in the education of their children and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties with parents. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Professional development will be held throughout the year with faculty on increasing parental and community involvement. Topics of interest include: access to Parent Portal, alternate means to contacting parents, ways to involve parents in academic and co-curricular activities. Teachers are encouraged to attend PAC meetings as a means of listening to parent input and ideas regarding the overall educational process.

Schools will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent programs and activities with Head Start, Reading First, Early Reading First involvement, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, and other programs, to further encourage and support parents in more fully participating in their children's education. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

N/A

Schools will ensure that information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to parents in understandable and uniform formats, including language. Please describe how this will be accomplished.

Interpreters (Spanish, Polish, Arabic) are available at all meetings, conferences, open houses and other events. Documents from the BOE are available in five (5) languages. If a document must be translated in a different language, translation services will be provided upon request.

Policy Implementation Activities

- The LSC will approve the school improvement plan and monitor the CIWP.
- In the CIWP, the school identifies current parental involvement practices and outlines activities related to expanding parent partnership programs.
- The school will coordinate the parent involvement programs identified in the CIWP.
- The school will evaluate the parent involvement policy for effectiveness and make improvements as necessary.

Explain why any of the boxes above are unchecked: (type "n/a" if all are checked)

Dyett High School for the Arts will not have an LSC until the third year of its existence.

Parent Compact

Walter H. Dyett High School for the Arts prepares students for college and careers, by providing them with a world-class arts education and rigorous core curriculum that foster creativity, innovation, critical thinking, and problem-solving.

The school will hold parent-teacher conferences. Describe the kinds of parent-teacher conferences that will be held and the dates on which they are scheduled.

Progress reports are distributed every three (3) weeks. Teachers call parent/guardian to update on student academic progress. Report Pick Up/Conference Nights are scheduled on November 10 and April 20. A parent/guardian may request a teacher conference with 48-hour notice to teacher and administrator.

The school will provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Describe when and how the school will provide reports to parents.

All teacher use Gradebook to record weekly assignments and is viewable via Parent Portal. Progress reports are distributed every three (3) weeks, in addition to the CPS Progress Reports mailed home on October 7, January 9, March 10, and May 19. Report Cards are mailed home on February 10 and June 20. Letters regarding unexcused absences (5, 10, 15 days) are mailed and followed up by a phone call home or home visit. All IEP meetings (initial placement, annual review, three-year re-evaluation) are held with parent/guardian notification. Daily phone calls are made by teachers, attendance coordinator, dean of students, counselors and post-secondary coaches. Parents are encourage to use the Parent Portal and the school's website for additional inquiries.

The school will provide parents access to staff. Describe when, where and how staff will be available for consultations with parents.

All incoming students are interviewed by school administrators and/or school counselors. New students are encouraged to attend cohort orientations to learn about the school's mission and goals, in addition to new school programs and services. Parents/guardians may contact teachers via voice mail or email through the school's website. Any parent/guardian may contact the school to schedule an appointment to speak to any staff member.

The school will provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their children's classes. Describe how and when parents may volunteer, participate, and observe classroom activities.

A Dyett volunteer link will be set up on the school website with a menu of options. Parents/guardians are encouraged to attend field trips, school activities, sporting events, and college tours. To schedule a campus tour, please contact the administration. All volunteers must pass the CPS background check per BOE policy.

The parents will support their children's learning. Describe how the parents will assist learning (i.e. monitoring attendance, homework completion).

Parents/guardians are encouraged to support their children's learning by developing trusting relationships with all school personnel. The Parent Portal training offered during orientations, report card pick up, teacher conferences, affords parents/guardians to opportunity to monitor student attendance, academic progress and discipline issues. Concerns about academic progress could be readily addressed by parent/guardian to ensure student is "on track" and successful. An Early College Arts newsletter highlights past and upcoming events that will prove enriching and exciting for students, parent/guardian and community. Tutoring is advertised in this publication and on the school website. Benchmark recovery sessions are held during and after-school for students who need additional academic support.

The parents will participate in decisions relating to the education of their children. Describe when, where and how parents will consult with the school.

Parents/guardians are invited to attend all PAC meetings to contribute ideas, suggestions and recommendation on how to improve their children's educational experience at Dyett. In addition, parents/guardians participate in most all meeting held for students with special needs. Parents of incoming/newly enrolled students meet with an administrator, a counselor and the school programmer to ensure the students' needs are met. Programming notices (subject selection) are sent home at the end of the 1st semester soon after counselors have met with students to discuss course offerings and subject selection for the next school year.

The students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. Describe how the students will assure academic achievement (i.e. good attendance, positive attitude, class preparation).

Students are expected to adhere to the district and school policies and procedures as outlined in the Dyett Handbook. The handbook outlines student/family expectations as related to attendance, school uniforms, electronic devices, comportment during passing time, and the CPS Student Code of Conduct. Students are encouraged to achieve academic proficiency and develop strong ethos during the entire school year. A teacher and/or parent/guardian may request student attend enrichment opportunities offered beyond the full-school day. Students are all assigned a personal locker to store books and personal effects; therefore, sharing a locker or lock combination with a peer is prohibited. Students should limit requests for hall passes to emergency situations only. All students should be prepared for class and willing to engage in a positive and inviting classroom environment. Students should maintain 90% or better attendance rate.
