Supports And Resources	The Hope Institute Learning Academy (HILA) is a partnership between The Hope Institute and Chicago Public Schools. Our instructors hold a wide range of specializations and provide individualized instruction to students. Resources and technology access are available through HILA's Family Resource Center and Community Technology Center. Partnerships with Pearson, The Autism Program of Illinois (TAP), Lincoln Park Zoo, Chicago Blackhawks Charities and the University of Illinois-Chicago Neighborhood Initiatives provide quality programs and services to our children, their families and the community. HILA's full-service Health Clinic provides on-site physical examinations, diagnosis, and treatment to HILA families and community members. Please call (312) 226-3288 to schedule an appointment.
