Mission Statement as of May 2013

The Mission of Agustin Lara Academy is to provide all of our students with the highest quality and rigorous learning experiences through the use of best instructional practices, high quality instructional materials, and modern educational technology to create a safe and productive school environment that ensures a solid foundation in the early elementary grades that are fundamental for the social, emotional, and academic demands of late elementary and middle school in order to successfully transition to secondary and higher education.

School Priorities as of May 2013

Description	Rationale
Provide rigorous high quality Literacy instruction in all grades using the highest quality instructional materials and pedagogy.	Based on our data only 66. % of our students are meeting and or exceeding state standards on ISAT. Explore data shows that 18 % of our 8th graders are meeting their goals in reading.
Provide rigorous high quality Mathematics instruction in all grades using highest quality instructional materials and pedagogy.	Based on our data only 74.2% of our students are meeting and or exceeding state standards on ISAT. Explore data shows that 9.1% of our 8th graders are meeting their goals in mathematics.
Provide rigorous ESL and bilingual instruction in all grades to provide best possible transition for all ELL students.	Based on our large ELL population the need to improve our ESL instruction and the transition of students to be proficient in EnglishStaff is included when discussing discretionary funds to support student achievement (i.e. technology in the classrooms) Weekly staff meetings, emails to staff.
