Mission Statement as of May 2013

Our Mission is to be an academy that provides innovative quality instructional programs that will develop leaders and critical thinkers through the integration of the arts through literacy, numeracy and technology across the curriculum. To develop a safe learning environment, we will involve All students, parents, community and other stakeholders in addressing the educational needs of all of our students through differentiated instruction. Our students learning is richly enhanced through the Pre-School for All Program, Safe Schools and Healthy Students Program.

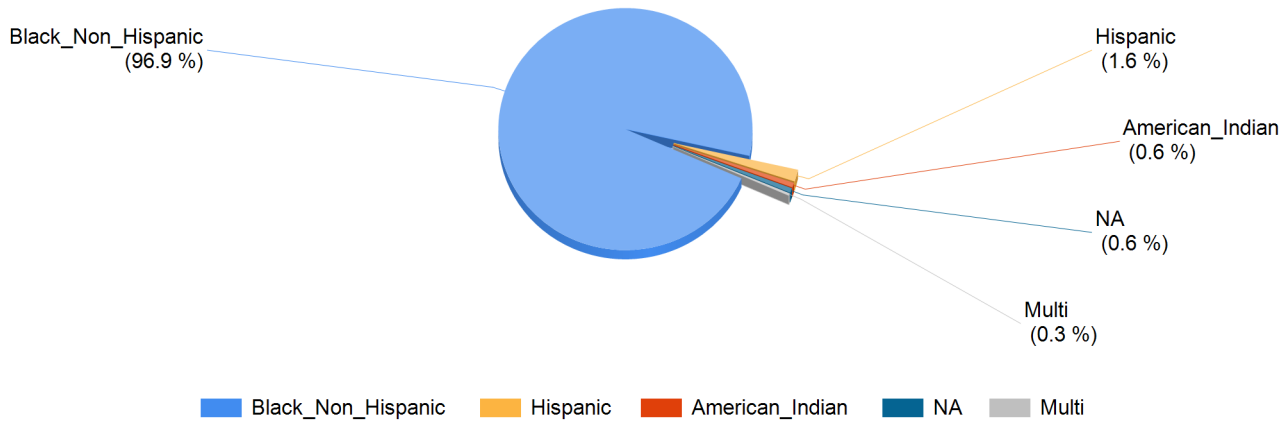

School Priorities as of May 2013

Description	Rationale
Full School Day	Keeping with the District's priorities we are implementing the FSD, Parkside is a school of growth. This will also help to enhance the school environment. Maintain school partnership to enhance fine arts through Fine Arts Friday with the University of Chicago, Global Girls, Vision Girls, Urban Gateways and others.
Common Core	Provide rigorous instruction to all students. To promote higher order thinking skills, and enhance quality instruction.
Effective Instruction/Charolette Danielson's Model	Building teacher capacity through on-going goal setting, Parkside will ensure that quality instruction is being provided to the students. Teachers will be able to reflect and improve their pedagogy through administrative collaboration and supervision.
Climate and Culture	Keeping with the District's culture of calm, Parkside will provide a Dean of Students, collaboration around PBIS, Second Step and Calm Classroom to improve the climate.
