

Terri A. Johnson

Terri A. Johnson is an organizational strategist with over 25 years of experience. For 18 years, she has designed and facilitated workshops, strategy sessions and leadership development programs. Topics include advocacy, community engagement, cultural competence, strategic planning, systemic change strategies, diversity and inclusion and fundraising. She has received consistent positive feedback about the effectiveness and power of these experiences. Ms. Johnson is the founder of C-Change Strategies, a social enterprise working with organizations to change their cultures, improve their communication and strengthen connections to engage and transform our communities.