Mission Statement as of May 2013

To provide a safe, inclusive environment for learning by delivering a tiered curriculum, that will support balanced literacy, problem solving and project based-learning. Teachers, staff and administration will place special emphasis on bilingual education through the Dual Language PLC and use of ESL strategies. The Early Childhood Center will provide a safe, organized, child-centered, Reggio-inspired environment that values children's rights and individuality. All stakeholders will work together to ensure that students graduate from our school with the necessary skills required for college and the world of work.

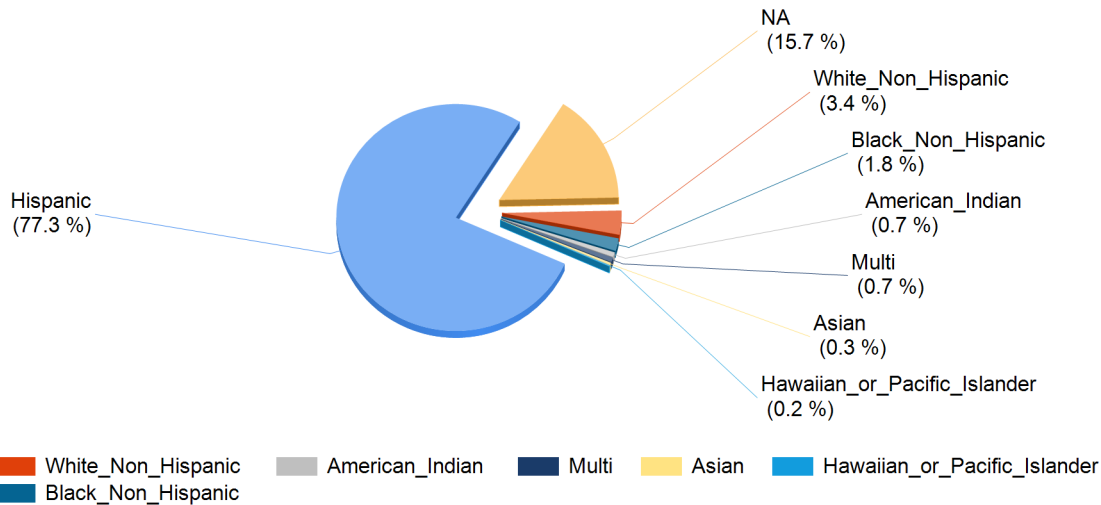

School Priorities as of May 2013
