Mission Statement as of May 2013

Through a rigorous college preparatory curriculum, and a diverse extracurricular program, we encourage and empower all students to reach the height of their academic potential and take an active role in understanding and influencing global change.

School Priorities as of May 2013

Description	Rationale
Family and Parental Involvement	Studies show that parental and/or family involvement increases the chances of student academic success.
Community Relationships	The engagement of student's in the community enhances the application of curriculum to real life experiences. Furthermore, community partners who invest energy and resources toward our student's education increase the quality of multi-disciplinary connections both inside and outside of the classroom.
Technology	Survival in today's society, depends on a well rounded technological background.
Literacy	An increase in the emphasis concerning literacy, which is the most basic and vital factor in the DNA of our academic institution, in terms of using common core, helps students across the board in all subject areas to further facilitate their minds in their transcending into post-secondary education.
On Track to Graduation	Expand our rigorous curriculum and extracurricular activities to expose our students to higher educational options, in order to take an active role in our changing world.
