Mission Statement as of May 2013

The mission of Nancy B. Jefferson Alternative School is to provide high quality instructional and social service programming to meet the diverse educational and social/emotional needs of court detained youth who are enrolled for varying periods of time. Ideally, the skills and dispositions learned at our school will enhance the students' chances for success when they return to their schools and communities. We commit to a comprehensive interagency system of support to assure this outcome.
