Dear Review Committee:

Please accept this communiqué as a letter of support for the Chicago Education Partnership Charter School's application to establish a charter school in the Austin community. The school plan calls for the implementation of a rigorous and personalized academic program, a focus on holistic education and the development of strong character.

The Chicago Education Partnership Charter School's application proposes a partnership with By the Hand Club for Kids, an organization that has been serving the Austin community for more than seven years with a significant record of success.

I trust the application will receive all due consideration.

Sincerely,
