Alvin Boutte, Jr.
505 N. Lake Shore Drive, Apt 511
Chicago, IL 60611
(312) 685-5002
AB@alvinboutte.com

Alvin Boutte, Jr. is the co-Founder of Schoolmates 501C3, which is a charter management organization based in Chicago, Illinois. Schoolmates currently manage the finance and operations of two charter schools located in the City of Chicago.

Previously, he was Managing Director of Grigsby & Associates, an investment bank and broker dealer which had an emphasis in municipal underwriting & trading and corporate advisory work. He also has extensive experience as a Cook County property tax consultant related to tax exemptions and reductions.

Mr. Boutte began his career with his family's commercial banks: Independence Bank of Chicago and Drexel National Bank, which were the largest African American owned financial institutions in the country, until they were sold. Working in numerous departments from a very young age, he came to understand the inner workings of a financial institution early on. In 1995 his family's banks were sold to South Shore Bank and Mr. Boutte moved to the brokerage firm and investment bank, Oppenheimer & Co., where he did extensive work in emerging market business development. From there he became a partner in a local boutique investment bank where his efforts were concentrated in developing the firm's municipal investment banking business.

Mr. Boutte has been active in local and national politics for many years as a volunteer. He worked as a volunteer for Carol Moseley Braun's historic campaign the U.S. Senate and from there he had the political bug and has been regularly involved in the election cycle since. Most recently Mr. Boutte has been an active volunteer with the Cook County Democratic Party supporting their efforts to manage the ballots.

He currently sits on the boards of the Chicago State Foundation and two charter schools, Betty Shabazz International Charter School and Amandla Charter School. He was appointed by then Mayor Richard M. Daley to serve as Co-Chairman of the City of Chicago's "Complete Count Committee" related to the US Census as well as a member of the Board and Finance Committee member of the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority.
